THEATRICAL STORYTELLING

REDDER

Little Red Riding Hood is 73 and looking for love. In this re-imagined one-woman show, artist/writer Gus Watcham turns the fairy tale upside down, shaking out all the bits to create a disturbed and darkly humorous psychodrama for our times.

BRIGHTON FESTIVAL VISUAL ART

SHHH...

Shhh... explores silence as a charged force. Abigail Norris and Isobel Smith met weekly, guided by a virtual Louise Bourgeois, letting strangeness and intimacy coexist. Over two years, their dialogue shifted from conversation to paired works, insisting sculptures speak for themselves, resonating tension, pressure, and autonomy without merging practices. Part of the visual art programme for the 2026 Brighton Festival.
